TEN GALLONS OF HOOCH CAPTURED

Found Near Seminary Station Late Yesterday Afternoon

HEARING TONIGHT

Car Marked 'Kindling Wood" Alleged to Have Contained Quantity of Corn Liquor.

Ten gallons of corn whisky were captured shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon by the police down a bank near a freight car near the Seminary Station, Fairfax county, a mile west of Alexandria. The police also took in custody a white man giving the name of Lang C. Rorer, who told the police he is from Seaymore, Va., and two colored men giving the names W. O. Hill and George Chick, express drivers, were detained as witnesses. They are from Washington and in court today they were released, there being no charge against them, but they were required to give a cash bond in the sum of $100 each to appear before the grand jury. The case against the man describing himself as Lang C. Rorer was continued by Mayor Duncan till 7.30 o'clock tonight.

Chief Goods and Sergt. Wilkinson and Policemen Magner and Lawrence Padgett yesterday afternoon visited the car in question and arrested the men. The car was marked "Kindling Wood" and was filled with bundles of kindling wood, which evidentally came from a saw mill. The police claim they were informed that five truck loads of liquor were taken from this car Monday and carried to Washington.

According to the testimony of the colored men they were employed by a white man in Washington yesterday to come over and haul some kindling wood to Washington. Arriving at the place they discovered a keg of corn liquor down the bank which they tapped and they partook of of some of the contents and Hill claimed the white man said one keg was missing Chick said he told the man about the presence of the keg and the man replied "You ain't afraid are you." Rorer late last night gave a bond of $500 for his appearance and was released.

The whiskey was opened at police headquarters and a match was applied to some of the fluid turned loose on the floor and it made a small blazie, indicating it contained a good sized quantity of alcohol. A quantity of the liquor poured into a glass showed the liquor extremely muddy, and experts declared that if it were strained it would be perfectly good hooch.

STATE OF PEACE BEFORE JULY 4

Senate and House Confrees Agree on Compromise Resolution

DEMOCRATS TO FIGHT

Final Congressional Action on Measure is Expected Tomorrow—Text of Compromise as to Austor-Hungar

Washington, June 29—Establishment of peace by Congressionall resolution neared its final stage today, when Senator and House Republican confenees agreed upon a compromise resolution which they hope to have in President Harding's hands late this week.

The compromise embodies the House plan of declaring the state of war with Germany and Austria at an end and adds the Senate provisions reserving American property and other rights.

The Democratic confenees, Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, and Representative Flood, of Virginia, called in for the final conference today, after the Republicans had previously arranged their compromise resolution, refused to sign the report, and said that, with other Democratic colleagues, they would oppose the Republican plan to the end. Overwhelming Republican majorities in both the Senate and House, however, were said to leave no doubt of adoption of the confenence draft.

Action on the compromise resolution tomorrow is planned in the House and finally in the Senate Thursday. The confenence report was presented to both bodies late today. Democratic leaders on both sides said that the final discussion would not be protracted and the Republicans said they hoped to have the peace measure sent to the White House by Friday, in expectation of its signature by the President before the Fourth of July.

Satisfaction over the compromise was expressed by both Senate and House Republican leaders. Chairman Porter, of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, was pleased that his plan for declaring the war at an end had been accepted instead of the Knox resolution repealing the war declarations. Senator Knox, however, gave out a statement declaring that both plans accomplished the same result.

"Both the Senate and House formulas," Senator Knox said, "effect the repeal of the war declarations desired."

The Senate confenees, in making concessions, gave away nothing of substance in their instructions, he said, adding that a resolution of Congress that a state of war is at an end "necessarily repeals the prior (war) resolution."

The text of the conference compromise follows:

"Section 1. That the state of war declared to exist between the Imperial German Government and the United States of America by the joint resolution of Congress, approved April 1917, is hereby declared at an end.

"Section 2. That in making this declaration, and as a part of it, there are expressly reserved to the United States of America and its nationals any and all rights, privileges, indemnities reparations or advantages, together with the right to enforce the same, to which it or they have become entitled under the terms of the armistice signed November 11, 1918, or any extensions or modifications thereof; or which were acquired by or are in the possession of the United States of America by reason of its participation in the war or to which its nationals have thereby become rightfully entitled; or which, under the Treaty of Versailles, have been stipulated for its or their benefit; or to which it is entitled as one of the principal Allied and associated powers; or to which it is entitled by virtue of an act or acts of Congress or otherwise.

"Section 3. That the state of war declared to exist between the Imperial and Royal Austro-Hungarian Government and the United States of America by the joint resolution of Congress approved December 7, 1917, is hereby declared at an end.

"Section 4. That in making this declaration, and as part of it, there are expressly reserved to the United States of America and its nationals any and all rights, privileges, indemnities, reparations or advantages, together with the right to enforce the same, to which it or they have become entitled under the terms of the armistice signed November 3, 1918, or any extensions or modifications thereof; or which were acquired by or are in the possession of the United States of America by reason of its participation in the war or to which its nationals have thereby become rightfully entitled, or which, under the treaty of Saint Germain-En-Laye or the treaty of Trianon, have been stipulated for its or their benefit; or to which it is entitled as one of the principal Allied and Associated powers; or to which it is entitled by virtue of any act or acts of Congress, or otherwise.

"Section 5. All property of the Imperial German Government, or its successor or successors and of all German nationals which was, on April 6, 1917, in, or has since that date come into the possession or under the control of, or has been the subject of a demand by the United States of America or of any of its officers, agents or employes, from any source or by any agency whatsoever, and all property of the Imperial and Royal Austro-Hungarian Government, or its successor or successors, and of all Austro-Hungarian nationals which was on December 7, 1917, in or has since that date come into the possession or under control of or has been the subject of a demand by the United States of America, or any of its officers, agents or employes, from any source or by any agency whatsoever, shall be retained by the United States of America and no disposition there-

WOMEN VOTERS HEAR CANDIDATES

Eight Who Seek Office in August Primary Appear

ALL MAKE TALKS

Women Hear What These Men Stand For and How They Would Conduct Affairs of Office.

Eight candidates seeking office subject to the democratic primary which will be held August 2 next last night appeared before a meeting of the League of Women Voters in the opera house and expressed their view to the women and also told of what they proposed to do if elected to office. Mrs. Rose M. MacDonall presided. In a short spiech she explained that the purpose of the meeting was to have the new voters become better acquainted with both candidates and the issues at stake.

The first speaker to present his views was E. W. Jordan of Arlington county, candidate for the state legislature to represent this city and Arlington county. He indicated that he was in favor of leaving the medical school at the University of Virginia and expressed himself in favor of those things which make for a more progressive state. He also said he was in favor of a more efficient system of public schools and good roads through out the state.

Charles Henry Smith, also a candidate for the legislature, next presented his views. Mr. Smith stated that he sorely feared that the Lee Highway would be run out of the District of Columbia by way of the Key bridge which would result in keeping the highway entirely out of the city of Alexandria. He pledged to work untiringly, if elected, for the original route through Alexandria. Mr. Smith also declared that he wished to be thought of by the voters as favoring a low tax rate. He added that he was unalterably opposed to any move whatsoever that would tend to increase the taxes. Mr. Smith stated he would use his best efforts to have the taxes decreased. He also expressed himself as being opposed to the incorporation of Clarendon, because such actions he said would result in an increase in taxation for the residents of that place without bringing proportionate improvements in civic development. In this connection for a low tax rate the speaker said that he did not wish to obstruct the good roads or public schools, as these, in his estimation, were essential in making Virginia a progressive state. Mr. Smith stated he would give support to the enactment of a curfew law and use his best efforts for its passage. Anent legislation for women his purpose he said would be to call together those who are qualified and act with them in cases affecting legislation in which they were particularly interested.

This third candidate for the legislature J. W. Collins said he like his opponent, Mr. Smith, was in favor of a low tax rate. He also expressed himself as favoring the passing of the Lee Highway through this city. The speaker asserted he would do all in his power to put the women of Virginia on an equal political footing with the men. Concluding he declared that he was not for any particular part of Virginia but for the good of the state as a whole.

Frederick G. Duvall, candidate for civil and police justice, in the course of his address declared there were no issues at stake inasmuch as his campaign was concerned. He explained the statute which has to deal with the office which he seeks. The requirements of the candidate provided he must have practiced law in Virginia for a period of at least five years. The person chosen he said begins his term January 1, 1922 and four years constitutes a term Mr. Duvall declared himself as favoring the strict enforcement of all statute laws and continuing he said: "As there can be no issues I feel that if the people of Alexandria think one of my opponents to be better fitted than I for the position I will gladly be defeated."

Howard W. Smith, commonwealth's attorney candidate for re-election, explained the method of voting by mail. He said that he would like to obtain the names of those who would be absent from the city at the time of election. Mr. Smith declared that in his estimation the office to which he aspires is one of the most important in the municipality as it has to deal with the prosecution of violations of the law. He added that he has practiced law for seventeen years, and has held his present position two and one-half years and referred the voters to his record during the time he has conducted the office.

W. S. Snow, also candidate for commonwealth's attorney, expressed himself as favoring law and order and he added that he especially desired to uphold the social and moral welfare in the city. Mr. Snow said he desired to correct social conditions as they now exist in the city.

Aylett B. Nicol, candidate for civil and police justice, declared that as no issues are involved in his campaign He would, he said, simply enforce the law. If elected he said, he would apply the laws as he found them, adding he did not know any caste or class, no race or creed, no friend or foe.

Frank Stuart, candidate for civil and police justice, was the last speaker Mr. Stuart in part said: "I am a countryman, therefore, I want an office. I stand for cleanliness and clean politics. I want the best man in office. I want to build up a court that is clean and above suspicion. I am working for clean politics in Alexandria in the interest of a clean government for the city. It rests with the woman to clean up the politics as the men have been appealed to again and again but always in vain. Elect me to the office and I assure you that I will do my part."

VIRGINIA NEWS

Fredericksburg, Va.—A remarkable discovery was made by workmen at the historic mansion of Chatham, on Stafford Heights, opposite Fredericksburg, after they had scraped three layers of wallpaper from the wall. On the walls in a small hall just inside the entrance to the left wing a large number of signatures of officrs and men of the Union Army were written on the white plastering in pencil many of them yet very legible, after being inscribed there over a half hundred years ago. During the Civil War Chatham was used to quarter soldiers of the Northern Army on several occassions, and it was during this period the names were written.

Winchester, Va.—Selling moonshine liquor by sample and making deliveries the following day was an innovation here this week, discovery of which was made too late, however, for the police to apprehend the rather bold and daring "drummer." The salesman said he represented a distilling company, whose plant was situated in the mountain of Virginia. He carried his "sample case" with him and had a book containing a list of customers who, he said, could "be depended upon," and another list of prospectives, whose standing was to be investigated before being approached

SMOKING O. K. WITH 300 FIREMEN AT FIGHT ARENA

New York, June 29.To lessen the danger of fire the Jersey City authorities have decided that newspapers may not be carried into the wooden arena in which the Dempsey-Carpentier fight will be held. For the same reason hot dog wagons and peanut roasters will be kept four blocks away from the great wooden bowl.

Three hundred firemen, equipped with 100 hose ready to conduct high pressure streams, will be ready to kill the first spark or smoulder.

But the spectators may smoke all they want.

STUDENTS IN UNDERWEAR

Raleigh, N. C. June 29.—Not to be daunted by temperatures ranging from 90 to 100 degrees, the local Y. M. C. A. officers have adopted a scheme whereby the heat will no longer have any effect on the attendance at the regular Monday night meetings of the Bible class.

"Wear only your underclothes to class," is the solution to the comfort of the students. Last night twenty-five of the dormitory men appeared in the regular classroom dressed only in their union suits.

PROTEST INCREASE IN STATE FARE

City Council Designates Corporation Attorney to Fight Trolley Boost

$95,152 FOR SCHOOLS

Increase in Annual School Appropriation of $25,000—Council Adjourns For Summer Till September 27.

City council last night adopted a resolution directing Corporation attorney H. Nott Garner to go to Richmond Friday and appear before the state corporation commission and resist the proposed increase in fares in the state on the Washington-Virginia Railway. The railway company desires to increase its fares in the state in accordance with the increase granted them by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Councilman Lawler suggested that the chamber of commerce be invited to join city council and co-operate in the move to prevent the railway company obtaining the increased rates in Virginia and it was decided to send as a letter asking their co-operation.

Councilman Tiler, chairman of the finance committee, presented the annual budget for the operating expenses of the public schools for 1921-22 carrying with it an appropriation of $95,152 of which amount the state pay $30,000. It was explained that this is an increase over last year's appropriation for public schools of $25,000. A total of $73,100 is for the pay of teachers. It was referred to the joint committee on finance and schools.

Resolution of Councilman Tiler appropriating $150 for each of the three fire companies in the city to help defray their expenses to the state firemen's convention which will be held in Lexington next month, was referred to the fire and finance committees.

An old resolution, being in the form of a petition from the Rosemont Citizens' Association, asking city council to take over the North Rosemont station and convert same into a sub police station was presented and discussed at length and it was referred to the joint committee on streets and finance.

Permission was granted Russell Mitchell Post No. 609 Foreign War Veterans to use the second floor of the old Relief Hook and Ladder fire engine house on Prince street between Royal and Fairfax streets, for clubrooms.

A large number of resolutions were adopted directing the city engineer to proceed with the work of improving sidewalks in various parts of the city that are in bad condition. Many of these sidewalks are on King street The cost of the work will be bourne by the property owners.

Councilman Downham introduced a resolution providing for the improvement of the square on Oronoco street between Washington and St. Asaph streets and it is provided that a certain part of the cost will be borne by the property owners. The resolution provides that the corporation attorney prepare an ordinance providing for the proposed improvements. The matter was referred to the committee on streets and finance.

Councilman McCaffrey called attention to the fact that a petition has been long standing providing for the improvement of Royal street between Queen and Princess streets.

An adverse report was made on the petition presented at the last meeting for the opening of a cemetery for the burial of colored persons on the south side of Wilkes between Payne and West streets and the report was adopted. It was explained by Councilman Lawler that the representatives of the various colored churches of the city are now making plans for starting a larger cemetery west of Ivy Hill and the location of this cemetery would be within the corporate limits and under to some extent the plans now under way for the cemetery being arranged for.

Other matters presented and acted on follow; Bill of Alexandria Light Infantry for electricity used at armory, referred to committee on finance and light; bill of H. Nott Garner for $80.13 to pay Washington stenographers for testimony in Washington-Virginia rate case ordered paid; $250 appropriated for sewer on North Peyton street.

The board of aldermen adopted a resolution adjourning for the summer till September 27, and council nonconcurred and afterward rescinded their action and concurred in the action of the aldermen, it being explained that a special meeting will be called shortly for the purpose of completing some business now pending.

NEW ORGAN FOR CHRIST CHURCH

Gift of Carnegie Foundation of New York

TO BE USED SUNDAY

Cost $10,000—Three Times as Large as Old Organ—Has 1900 Pipes —Fourth Organ for Church

The Carnegie Foundation of New York has recently given to Christ Church of this city a magnificent organ. This organ was built by Hillgreen, Lane and Company, of Alliance, Ohio. The work of installation is under the personal supervision of Mr. Hillgreen. The total cost of the organ is $10,000, and is over three times as large as the organ that has been just removed.

For many years after the church was erected it contained no organ, this organ is the fourth to be installed in this historic church.

Its architecture is in perfect harmony with the Colonial style in which the interior of the church is finished. It is electro-pneumatic throughout. The console is located on the main floor, of the church, with the choir stalls. The main organ is located in the rear gallery, while the echo organ is located in the northeast corner of the gallery. The organ has about 1900 pipes or more than three times the number in the old organ. It consists of three manuels, an echo division and a full set of twenty-five chimes. Each manuel is enclosed in a separate compartment so that all pipes are under expression. There are thirty speaking registers, twenty-seven couplers, fifteen combination pistons, and seven pedal movements. The console is connected with the organ by an electric cable of about five-hundred wires. Power for the organ is furnished by a three horse-power motor blowed, located in the tower of the church.

The work of installing the organ will be completed the last of this week, and it will be used for the first time at Sunday's services.

TODAY'S THOUGHT Wise men say there are three sorts of persons who are wholly deprived of judgment: they who are ambitious of preferment in the courts of princes; they who make use of poison to show their skill in curing it; and they who intrust women with their secrets.

Bidpai (a Brahmin philosopher)

Is It a Monopoly?

The Southern Planter, published at Richmond, in its last issue, has an editorial concerning the Virginia Pilots' Association. It claims that this Association, a band of some thirty men, exacts a toll in excess of a million dollars per year on shipping entering Hampton Roads. It states that a handsome remuneration could be paid the pilots, the two vessels now operated by the pilots maintained in commission, and all the other expenses provided for, at a total of not to exceed $250,000. This would mean, says the Planter, that at least $750,000 could be turned in to the State Treasury. This would build 30 miles of road costing $25,000 per mile. Or, it would nearly pay the interest on Virginia's public debt annually. Or, it would provide the salaries of almost a thousand teachers. Or, it would nearly double the pensions of all the Confederate veterans and widows of veterans.

If it be true, as the Southern Planter claims, that the Pilots' Association is receiving fees in excess of a million dollars yearly, then, indeed, the matter should be looked into, that the state may receive its due share of this enormous sum.

But whose duty is it to look after matters such as this? Somebody, it is apparent, should make it his duty. The vigilant press of the state could, if it would, so impress the public mind that this somebody would be stirred to do his duty? Like many other things, however, this abuse, if such it is, will yet continue undisturbed for an indefinite period of time. What we need is a reformation of our system of state government.

IN MEMORIAM

TRUNELL—In sad remembrance of my dear mother, SUSAN TRUNELL, who departed this life June 28, 1918.

One by one earth's ties are broken,
One by one they pass away,
But we hold a glorious token,
We shall meet some future day.
Home at rest, so sweetly sleeping
In thy Saviour's tender care,
Where there is no pain or sorrow—
None on earth can harm you there.
Yet again we hope to meet thee
When the day of life is fled;
Then in Heaven with joy to greet thee.
Where no farewell tear is shed.

BY YOUR LOVING DAUGHTER, ANNIE. 154-1p.

IN MEMORIAM

PALLANT—In sad but loving remembranceof my dear father, GEORGE W. PALLANT, who departed this life two years ago today, June 29, 1919.

Two years have passed, our hearts still sore,
As time goes on we miss you more,
There is a chair vacant in our home which never can be filled.
Though you have gone, but not forgotten,
In this world of care,
Where Jesus watches over you
And keeps you safe forever more.

154-1p. BY THE FAMILY.

THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value to Every Alexandria Citizen

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Alexandria citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived?

Guy Pettit, railroad engineer, 114 Commerce St., Alexandria, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a number of years and they have done me so much good I wouldn't be without them. I usually carry a box of Doan's with me because my kidneys are apt to get out of order. This is from the jarring of the engine. However I only have to use a few of Doan's Kidney Pills and I am not bothered any more."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Pettit had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

THE HEAL-ALL OF THE INDIANS
There is an herb which grows wild on our Western Plains known as "Manzanita" and to which the Indians attribute wonderfull curative and healing virtue.
There is no question but that nature has bounteously provided in the roots and herbs of the field a remedy for many of the ills to which human flesh is heir. This is demonstrated by the wonderful success of that root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for more than forty years has been relieving women of America from some of the worst forms of female ills. It will certainly pay any woman who so suffers to try it.

LAUGHS!

He (cautiously)—"Would you say 'Yes' if I asked you to marry me?"
She (still more cautiously)—"Would you ask me to marry you if I said I would say 'Yes' if you asked me to marry you?"—Boston Transcript.

The only son of an American millionaire recently ran away from home and joined the staff of a weekly journal. We understand that friends broke the news by telling the parents that their son was dead, and gently worked up to the climax.—The Passing Show (London).

"Cap'n, suh," explained the unbleached motor-cycle courier who had unsuccessfully attempted to navigate a French highway in night traffic "everything was jest goin' along fine, and den Ah see mah chance to dodge in between two motor-cycles."
"Well, what of it?"
"Dat's all dey was to it, Cap'n, suh. Dem two motor-cycles was a truck."—The American Legion Weekly.
